HIS WORD FOR IT.

No Need For Hopkinsville People to Do Any Guessing.

No need for Hopkinsville people to fly about in search of relief from bad backs, urinary weakness and other symptoms of kidney troubles. A man whom you can believe says that Dorn's Kidney Pills will reach all such cases.

C. B. Eades, of the firm of Eades & Davis, proprietors of the Coal Yard on Seventh St., and the L. & N. R. R., and who lives at 402 East 7th St., says: "I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended by persons who had used them that I went to Thomas & Traher's drug store, procured a box and gave them thorough trial. I had suffered for a long time with a heavy pain across the small of my back, sharp and acute at times. When I caught cold it always settled to my back and there followed a weakness of the kidneys which was exasperating especially at night. I tried various remedies but none of them gave anything like as satisfactory results as I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am pleased to say that they brought me great relief. I have recommended the Pills and will continue to do so to all my friends and acquaintances."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Don't Use Stimulants.

You need a bracer or strengthener at this time of the year, but you do not want to be left with the depressing effects which follow the use of stimulants. As a tonic or purifier, there is nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin, which acts gently, but effectively, on the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels. Don't take the nostrums which are advertised under the name of Sarsaparilla, Blood Purifiers, etc. Not one in ten contains a single grain of the genuine Sarsaparilla Root or Potassium Iodide. Take only Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin, which is sold by your druggist in 50c and $1.00 bottles.

HEALTH IS YOUTH.

It purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Mrs. D. W. Smith, Whitney, Texas, writes April 3, 1902: "I have used Herbine and find it the best medicine for constipation and liver troubles. It does all you claim for it. I can highly recommend it." 50c a bottle. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

No Result.

The visit of August Belmont to Washington is said not to have resulted in any important developments in the Democratic political situation.

EXPERIMENTS WITH PETS.

Madagascar Monkey Required Too Much Attention—So Did Fox Cub for That Matter.

A miniature Madagascar monkey was my next experiment, says a writer in London Answers, and the advent and sojourn of the unhappy little creature reminded me of the time when three of the children were down with measles and bronchitis at once. We nursed him night and day in a cozy little bed made of flannel before a warm fire for a fortnight, while he passed his time in panting and looking pitiful. At the end of this period I returned him in a big hamper, with a hot water bottle to keep his temperature up, to the dealer.

Rennie was a fox cub, and a sportsman to the foxine equivalent for his finger tips. Although great favorites as pets in captivity in the country, I gathered, the experiment of keeping young foxes near towns and cities had not yet been tried, but there was no reason why it should not succeed. He was kept fastened up in a kennel in the garden, and how he used to get out baffled me, but get out he did.

He recognized the fact that the world owed him a living, and that he was indebted to me for providing him with a home. His contributions toward defraying the expenses of that home took the form of whatever feathered creatures crossed his path during his mysterious peregrinations.

Eight chickens, four pigeons, a magpie and smaller fry were all laid out in triumph at various times for inspection in front of his kennel, but when, after a period of enforced inactivity, brought about by his being locked up in the toolhouse, he escaped, and out-Heroded Herod by weighing in with a poll parrot and a feather-headed mop, I was constrained to send him away as a present to a lady friend of the editor's whom I had heard express an affection for dumb animals.

And so I have gone back to my old terrier Chips. He is a chum, though he cannot speak a word except with his honest brown eyes; but he minds what I say to him, which is more than anybody or anything else in this world ever did, not excepting the office boy.

WEeping AT THE THEATER

Clever Girl Discourses on the Philosophy of Tears Called Up by Sad Scenes.

"There is just this about crying at the theater," said the average woman, to a Philadelphia Inquirer reporter. "You'll cry if you're in the mood for it, and you won't if you're not—no matter how harrowing or non-harrowing the play may be. Like most average women I rarely cry, either at the theater or anywhere, but I long ago discovered that it depends entirely upon my mood at the time. I once went to a genuine comedy and found the tears filling my eyes just because I happened to be blue at the time, and I've been at many a play with all the women round me mopping their eyes and drying their pocket handkerchiefs on their fans, while I—being for some reason or other uplifted—sat there dry-eyed, almost smiling."

"No matter what my mood, however, the thing sure to keep me from weeping at the theater is any emotional display on the part of her who is with me. I can attend the weepiest kind of a play unmoved with my sister, for she starts in way ahead of time, making me feel more like laughing than crying, and then when the true lachrymose opportunity arrives it finds me pathos-proof. This is the only way by which I may make myself immune from weeping at the theaters upon all occasions."

Where subscriptions are ordered, THE ARRIVAL OF THE PAPER ITSELF IS AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT YOUR ESTIMATE HAS BEEN RECEIVED AND IS CAREFULLY RECORDED.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."

In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributed articles, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it. Men in public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."
